Reflections

Memories of a year well spent REFLECT on our minds as images on a mirror. We try to catch and cling to these times of laughter, pain, sorrow, and triumph; but they float away like fragrance carried on the hush of the wind. Our memories are as the foam that is lifted and borne on after the wave is lost in the full sea.

We had some good times--times of happiness and pain. We laughed and we cried. We try to remember only our triumphs, and time heals our wounds and helps us forget our losses.

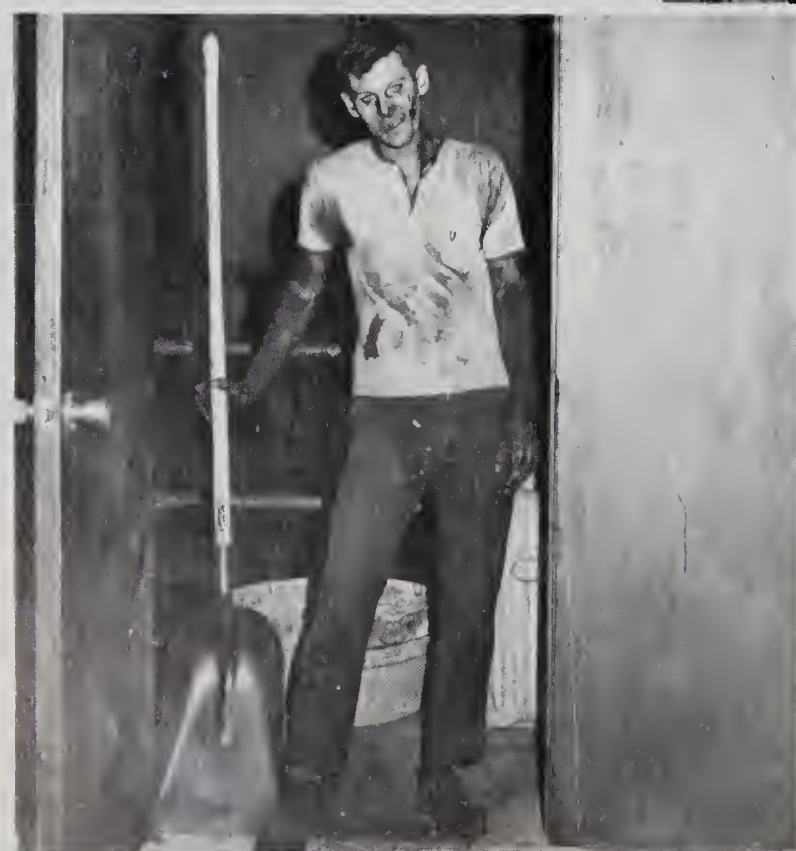

This year at Aycock is only one-fourth of our high school days, but this year will REFLECT on our lives with great importance. For seniors, this is their apex in high school. These seniors will go on to pave unpaved pathways in the future, and all through their lives this year will REFLECT more than any other. The seniors of CBA have only memories now; and memories do fade, while, you the underclassmen, have a chance for more days of high school joys and pains. Take care with your high school years so that their REFLECTIONS will be clear on your mirror of the future.

Reflections of C.B.A.H.S. 1967-'68

MR. J. K. THOMPSON

Dedication

Business teacher, Governor advisor, friend--these are some of the words which might be used to describe the person to whom this yearbook is dedicated.

He has taught at Aycock since its beginning; he has devoted numerous after-school hours to working with members of the annual staff; he has provided help and encouragement to many students and teachers. His friendliness and enthusiasm are appreciated by all those who know him.

It is with pride and pleasure that we, the members of the annual staff, dedicate The Governor of 1968 to Mr. J. K. Thompson.

Mr. Thompson has devoted much of his time helping members of The Governor staff.

This Typing class is only one of Mr. Thompson's hard working classes.

Mr. Thompson is showing his Notehand class the correct way to write (you).

Administration and Personnel

MR. R. DONALD JONES, Principal

Another school year has drawn to a close. Glancing back, we can see that it was a fruitful year with all our plans and objectives completed. Another year will bring new ideas and objectives as we strive constantly to improve.

Congratulations for a job well done. Thank you for allowing me to work with such a cooperative staff and student body.

R. Donald Jones

MR. WILLIAM G. WEBBER, Assistant Principal

Working with the students at Charles B. Aycock has certainly been a pleasure and a rewarding experience.

To the Seniors we express our regret at seeing you depart; however, it is my desire that the knowledge you have gained while in school will be advantageous to you in the future.

MRS. ELIZABETH O'BERRY
Guidance Counselor

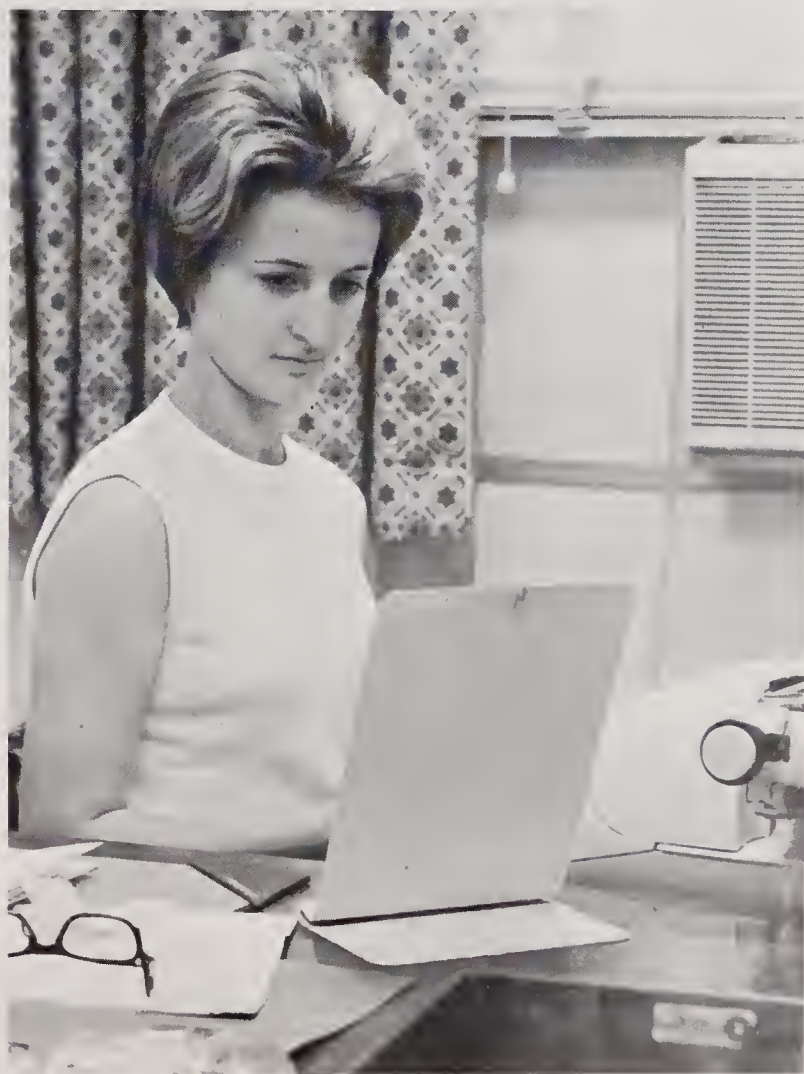

The aim of the guidance program at Charles B. Aycock is to help each individual make wise choices and decisions that will enable him to achieve the maximum of which he is capable. In order to reach this goal, each student must understand himself in relation to the changing world in which he lives.

He is assisted in solving everyday problems and in making realistic educational and occupational plans through testing, and using occupational files and other information available in the Guidance Department.

Aycock's Falcons are the Eastern Plains 2-A Conference Champions!

Quarterback Edgerton talks strategy with Coach McClenny.

We're Number 1!

The Charles B. Aycock Falcons defied all preseason predictions as they flashed to a 9-2 record and the Eastern Plains Conference championship. In posting their fine record, the Falcons made a complete reversal of their 1-9 record of the previous year. The Falcons were undefeated in conference play, compiling a perfect 7-0 record. Aycock rolled undefeated to nine straight victories before finally falling at the hands of Eastern Co-Champion Southern Wayne. The Falcons finished the regular season with a record of nine victories and only one defeat. By winning the conference championship, the Falcons earned the right to play in the regionals. Unfortunately, Aycock fell victim in the first game to a powerful Clayton squad. Although they were defeated, Aycock's Falcons had nothing to be ashamed of, as they registered the best seasonal record in the history of Charles B. Aycock football. In addition, the Falcons were ranked at the season's end as the 10th best team in Eastern North Carolina.

The Falcon offense grinds into action.

Charlie Smith lowers the boom on a Hobbton back.

Aycock's rugged defensive unit halts Hobbton.

The reasons behind Aycock's tremendous football season were simple. The offense was capable of grinding out yardage or exploding for quick touchdowns. The defense, quick and hard-hitting, allowed opposing teams few scoring opportunities. The most important reasons, however, for the Falcon's success were the teamwork, desire, and poise instilled in the squad by our excellent coaches.

Jerry Goodman closes in for the kill.

Aycock Finishes in Tie for Second

Captain Jerry Goodman inspired and led the Falcons.

Despite his squad's lack of height, Coach Lewis directed them to a tie for second in the conference.

"Let's Go!"

Vail shoots over tall Farmville defenders.

With ballet-like moves, Barnes glides past New Hope defense.

The 1967-68 basketball season was one of "ups and downs" for the Falcons. In the 6 games before the Christmas break, Aycock appeared to be headed for a dismal season. Of these six, only two were victories. Then, after a series of hard practices over the Xmas holidays, the Falcons abruptly changed direction. With hustle, tough defensive play, and a ball-control offense, Aycock was able to overcome its lack of height and won 11 of its last 14 games. The climax of this streak was reached in the final game of the season against North Lenoir, when the scrappy Falcons upset the Buccaneers and finished the season in a tie for second with a final record of 10 wins and 4 losses in the conference. Overall, Aycock had a record of 13 and 7.

Peacock prepares to shoot as a defender closes in.

In the tournaments the Falcons ran out of steam, losing to Hobbton in the conference tournament and Williamston in the districts.

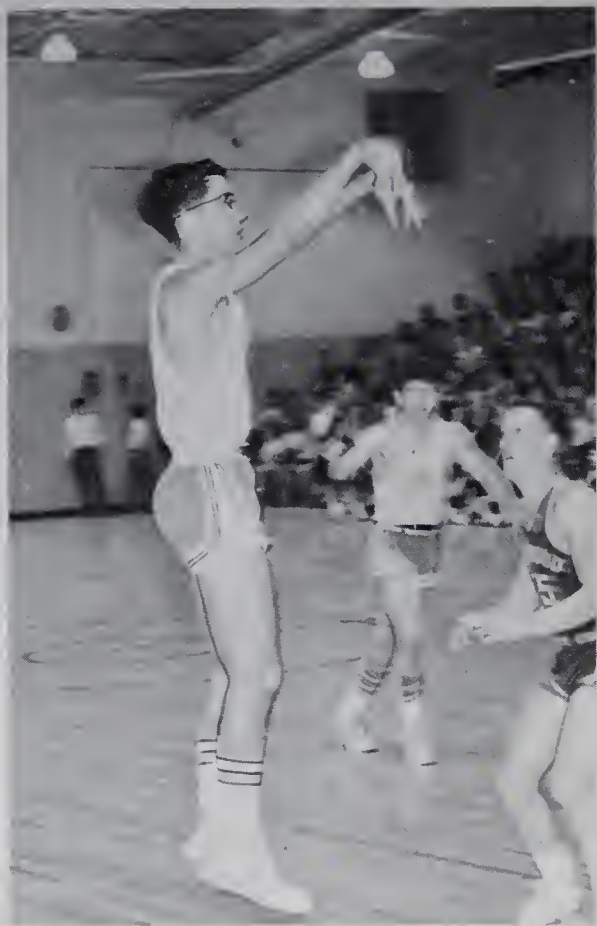

Despite these losses, Aycock's season had its bright spots, notably the outstanding play of senior captain Jerry Goodman and sophomore Robert Barnes. With several good varsity players returning and the addition of some fine J. V. prospects, Falcon fans can look forward to an even better season next year.

Matthews hooks over the fingertips of a defender.

Peacock protects the ball from opposition as he looks for the open man.

Falcons Capture Third in Conference

Falcon baseballers for the 1968 season were as follows: FIRST ROW: Charlie Van Hoy, Danny Newcomb, Gerald Cannon. SECOND ROW: Randy Fields, Donnie Hare, Kenneth Jackson, Chester Ray Hare, Chris Long, Stan Matthews, Robert Pittman, Benny Pennington. THIRD ROW: Coach Barnes, Buddy Davis, Wayne Crumpler, Brack Davis, Dennis Crumpler, Gregg Davis.

Slugging catcher Chris Long awaits his turn at the plate.

Star pitcher Danny Newcomb hurls his fastball.

Aycock's baseball team had a fine season in 1968. Under the instruction of Coach Doug Barnes, the Falcon nine led the conference for most of the season, losing out in the final stretch to finish third in the tough Eastern Plains Conference. The talent of this year's team was widely recognized, as three team members were chosen for the All-Conference squad and a fourth received honorable mention. All-Conference selections were Stan Matthews, Don Garris, and Danny Newcomb. Chris Long received honorable mention. Next year's season also looks bright, as the majority of the Falcon team returns for another campaign.

All-Conference shortstop Stan Matthews leans back from a high, inside pitch.

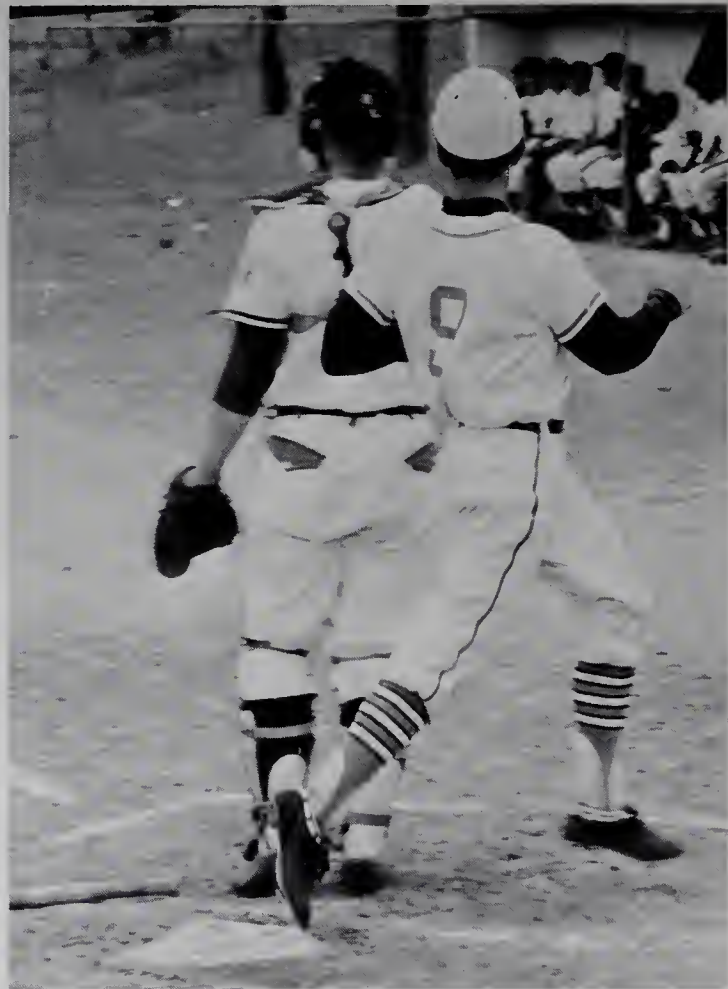

All-Conference second baseman Don Garris "gives it a ride."

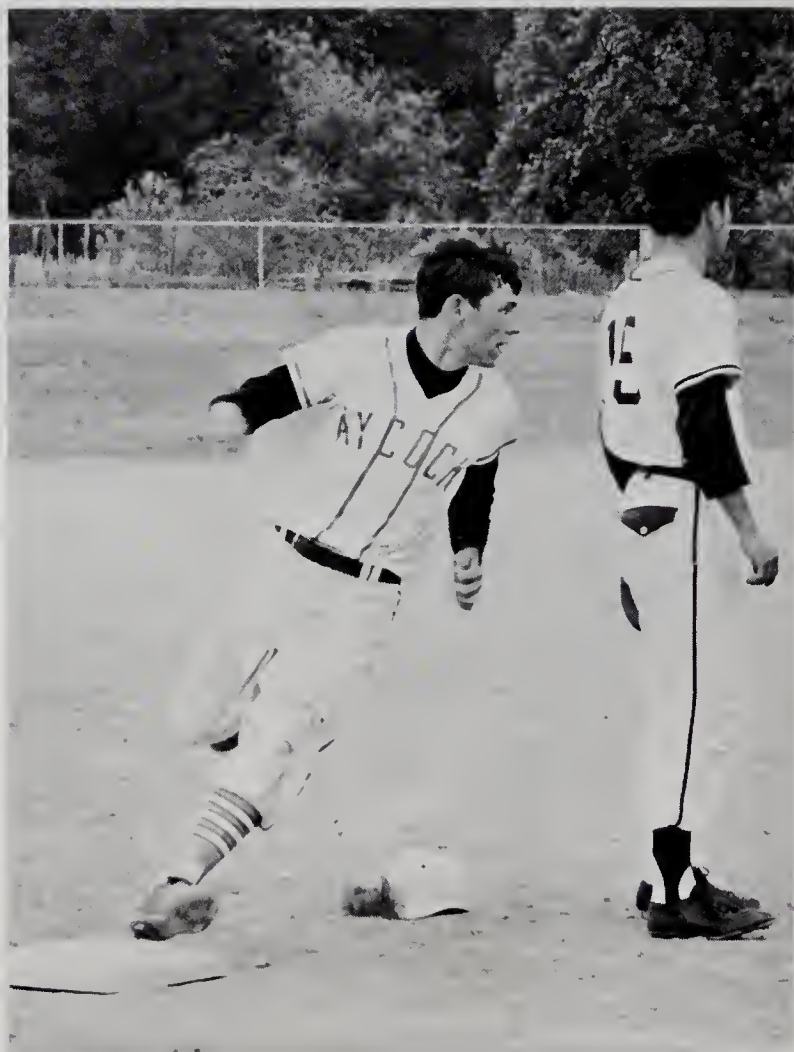

Stan Matthews scoops up a hot grounder at second.

Charlie Van Hoy crosses home plate with a run for C.B. A.

Third baseman Robert Pittman fields a ground ball.

Chris Long rounds third and heads for home.

Danny Newcomb pulls up at first as the team watches from the dugout.

Aycock Trackmen Finish Third in Conference Meet.

Aycock's track team had a very successful season, finishing in third place in the conference meet. Four new records were set this year in track. Charlie Van Hoy broke the school records in the 100 and 220-yard dashes. Charlie also anchored our record-smashing 880 relay team. Along with Van Hoy on this fine relay team were Jerry Goodman, D. H. Whitley, and Brack Davis. Kenneth Jackson set a new school record in the high jump as he placed first in the conference meet and second in the sectional meet. Kenneth's best jump was in the sectional track meet, where he cleared the bar at six feet. Next year's track season also looks bright because only four members of this year's fine squad were seniors.

Collier Aycock shows winning form in the shot put.

D. H. Whitley leaps as spectators look anxiously on.

Aycock could hurl the discus with the best in the conference.

"Flash" Davis waits in the blocks to give teammate Jerry Goodman and a Northern Nash opponent a "chance."

Goodman and Davis try to catch a fleet Northern Nash opponent.

Bob Stevenson shows his power in the shot put.

Charlie Van Hoy strains to hold his lead in the 100-yard dash.

D. H. Whitley bursts from the starting blocks.

Dennis Parnell heaves the shot.

Kenneth Jackson exhibits the high-jumping form which enabled him to take conference and sectional honors.

Brack Davis passes the baton to D. H. Whitley in the 880 relay.

Athletic Banquet High

Ernie Williamson, assistant football coach at UNC, was the guest speaker.

Jerry Goodman received the Most Valuable Player Award in basketball and the Best Defensive Award in football and basketball.

Beverly Perkins received the Most Valuable Player Award in girl's basketball.

Erlene Sauls received the Best Defensive Award in girls' basketball.

lights End of Season

Charlie Van Hoy received the Most Valuable Player Award in track and the Best Offensive Award in football.

Stan Matthews received the Most Valuable Player Award in baseball.

CHARACTERISTICS OF A CHEERLEADER

Cheerleaders are special people. They must have that Extra Something that will create a contagious spirit in their fellow classmates. Cheerleaders must be in top physical condition because they cannot take a break for rest. A cheerleader must be intelligent, because she must learn many cheers and the rules of the game she is cheering for. A cheerleader has to have co-ordination because she has to execute many difficult maneuvers in her cheers. Last, but not least, a cheerleader must have stamina, because she must keep going, keep cheering, keep smiling, regardless of the outcome of the game.

Melanie Hollis Crowned "Miss Aycock"

Melanie Hollis, a junior, was crowned Miss Aycock in competition with seven other girls. Competition was in three categories - evening gown, swim-suit, and talent. Master of Ceremonies for the event was Dan Dermody of Goldsboro's WGBR radio station. The pageant was held May 6, 1968, in the school gymnasium. Mrs. Elizabeth Scott directed the event.

Miss Marty Bunn, Miss Aycock 1967-68, crowned Melanie.

Judy Bradshaw was first runner-up.

Second runner-up was Pat Bass.

Swim-suit competition was difficult.

Prom Reflects Gracious Old- South Charm

"A Summer Place In the Old South" was the theme of this year's prom. Everyone danced to the music of the Reflections on the lawn of a southern mansion. The waiters and waitresses served well and provided entertainment by singing "A Summer Place."

Jim Peacock and Debra Radford were crowned King and Queen of the prom.

Advanced and Beginning Chorus

The Falconettes and Falconaires of Charles B. Aycock High School are a well-known choral group in Eastern North Carolina.

During the school year they presented more than 50 performances before civic, church, and other organizations.

Christmas program given during assembly.

Beginning chorus performs.

Combined music groups present finale of the Spring Festival.

Drama

Reflects

The Drama Class makes a study of many different types of drama including radio, television, panel discussions, playwriting, and play production.

During the year they presented plays to the student body and community.

The Dramacons are a traveling group, also; making trips to Raleigh, Williamsburg, and New York City to see plays and other cultural activities.

Mrs. Sedalia Green is advisor to the group.

Culture

Professional Groups Raise Cultural Level of Student Body

A Flat-rock actor recites lines from Carl Sandburg.

The Don Reddig dancers project a theme into each performance.

The Carl Sandburg program was narrated by one of the actors.

Modern dancers enact the mood set forth by the rhythm of the music.

GRADUATION

Senior Day — A

Shelia Goff, Senior Class President, speaks to the student body.

The juniors moved over to take the seniors' places.

Everyone was starved when lunch time finally rolled around.

Long Awaited Event

Danny, Bobby, and Bob seemed to be enjoying their lunch.

Lynn Evans gave the history of the students who came from Fremont.

The seniors payed close attention to instructions given by Mr. Craft.

The whole afternoon was practice for the seniors.

Marshals are selected on their scholastic average. Juniors who have maintained an average of ninety and above for their three high school years serve in the capacity of marshal.

Marshals serve as hosts and hostesses for Freshman Orientation and as ushers for Awards Night, Baccalaureate, and Graduation.

The 1967-1968 marshals are Donna Vail, Jerry Smith, Nancy Sullivan, Denise Ledford, Braddy Corbett, and Susan Daniel, Chief. Descending the steps are Ladell Brown, Deborah Ingram, Keith Wells, and Elaine Aycock.

Reflect Academic Excellence

Honor Graduates

The 1967-1968 honor graduates are (listed according to rank): James Edward Peacock, Jr., William Garland Stewart, Debra Susan Radford, Mary Ellen Beamon, Michael Lloyd Fornecker, Sarah Ann Jones, and Robert Lee Strickland.

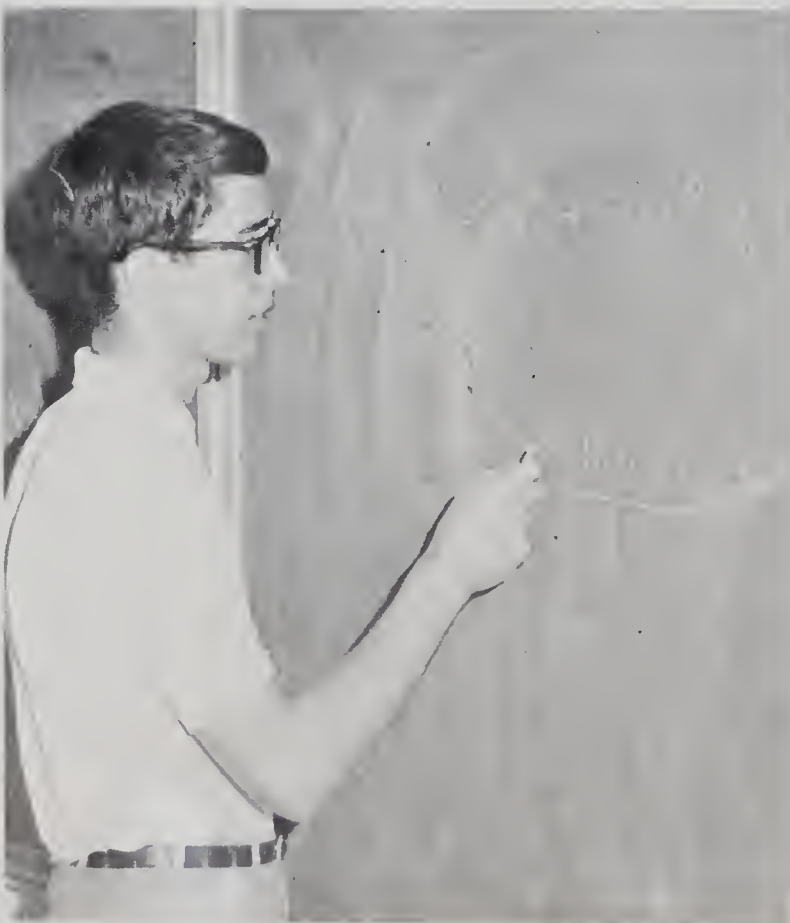

All seven honor graduates were 1967-1968 marshals. Each honor graduate is outstanding not only as a student but also as an individual.

Seven seniors led the graduating class of 1968 in the graduation processional. As honor graduates, these seven seniors wore gold cords and tassels to symbolize the scholastic standing they had achieved.

Honor graduates are selected on a scholastic basis. Seniors maintaining an average of ninety-three and above for all four high school years are given honor graduate status.

JAMES EDWARD PEACOCK, JR.

Jim was top honor graduate in a class of 122. He served as president of the Beta Club and received the McNerney Guidance Award. He was an outstanding member of this year's basketball team.

WILLIAM GARLAND STEWART

Bill was an outstanding member of the football squad that took the conference title. Bill was one of three Wayne County boys selected as Morehead Scholarship nominees. He is first alternate for the scholarship from the County.

DEBRA SUSAN RADFORD

This year Debra completed her second year with the Dramacons. She has devoted much of her extra school time to the work of the student council, serving as elections committee chairman.

MARY ELLEN BEAMON

Mary Ellen sang with the Falconettes and Falconaires and received the Mrs. J. W. Rose Music Award. She served on the staffs of both the newspaper and the year-book.

MICHAEL LLOYD FORNECKER

Mike received the John B. Chase Achievement Award for boys. He was a newspaper staffer this year. As a student Mike excelled in mathematics.

SARAH ANN JONES

Ann had the responsibility of transporting some 50 elementary students to and from school daily. She excelled in the business curriculum of the school.

ROBERT LEE STRICKLAND

Bobby excelled in the science department of the school. He was an active member of the Beta Club and the Photo Club this year.

Awards Night

Jim Peacock won the Reader's Digest Subscription.

Wanda Blow was the recipient of the Dr. J. W. Rose Scholarship Loan.

Kenneth Smith was presented the Photography Award by Mr. Joyner.

Mag Tilton received the C. T. Davis Girl's Achievement Award.

May 24

Stan Matthews receives the Moose Citizenship Award.

Mr. Howell presented the Nahunta Grange Citizenship Award to Kenneth Evans.

Mary Ellen Beamon received the Mrs. J. W. Rose Music Award.
